REFUND POLICIES

A commitment to ISTA is a commitment to yourself.

It is assumed that if you feel drawn to this training, it is not an accident.

Your deposit and payments denote this commitment. Therefore, your deposit is non-refundable.

If for any reason you are unable to attend the training, you will receive a partial refund under the following conditions:

- If you cancel before January 30th, you will get a full refund of your total payment to date, minus the non-refundable deposit. Bank transfer fees will be on the participant's costs.
- If you cancel between January 30th and March 29th, the amount retained will be 50% of your total payment to date, minus the non-refundable deposit. The remaining 50% will be transferred back to you. Bank transfer fees will be on the participant's costs.
- Cancellations after March 30th are non refundable.
- We will not be able to offer any refund should you decide to leave at any time after the first day of the training.

Due to the pandemic, we have the following update to our Refund Policy:

ISTA, as a living organism and susceptible to the transformations that the world is going through, has its attentive and active positioning towards the creation of a safe and coherent space with its proposal.

For this reason, it is a retreat whose curriculum makes physical distancing difficult, as much of the experience and its transformational potency happens due to the proximity and interaction with the other participants.

However, we encourage each participant to make clear choices regarding their own boundaries, allowing each participant to choose to establish their own means of interacting, including distancing and not touching if they prefer.

At the same time, we take the necessary precautions so that sanitary care is efficient, especially with regard to food and cleaning of spaces.

Because we are aware of possible cancellations of trainings/border closures/contamination of individuals close to the date of the retreat, our Refund Policy covers the option of returning the full amount paid if the reason is one or more of those presented here.

If ISTA has to cancel the event for any reason, a full refund will be given, remembering that there will be no refund for additional personal expenses such as travel, accommodation, etc.

We recommend that transport and accommodation reservations for the periods before and after the event are made closer to the event, or flexible tickets and refundable accommodation reservations.

In addition, we vibrate in positivity and in the confidence that these dark times also bring great opportunities, and we welcome those who feel the call to participate in such an important and powerful event at this time of so many challenges.

Thank you for understanding and honoring these agreements!
